

ELISE LAHAYE

FRENCH, 23 YEARS OLD

Driving licence

LANGUAGE AND OTHER SKILLS

- French : native speaker
- English : advanced level
- Softwares : R, PostGreSQL and QGIS
- 1st level of underwater diving
- Entitled to act in case of stranding of marine mammals in France since 2017
- French lifeguard certificate since 2015 (Brevet National de Sécurité et de Sauvetage Aquatique)
- First Aid Certification level 1 and 2 since 2015 (Premiers Secours en Équipe de niveau 1 et de niveau 2)

VOLUNTEERING

- Member of the « Coordination Mammalogique du Nord de la France », marine mammals group since 2016
- Member of the « Fédération Française de Sauvetage et de Secourisme » since 2015

CONTACT

 7 rue Jeanne d'Arc
59147 Gondécourt
FRANCE

 +33 6 26 94 19 63

 lahaye.elise@gmail.com

EDUCATION

2018 : Master's degree « Management and Evolution of Biodiversity », Lille 1 University – Villeneuve d'Ascq, France

Ecology, Structure and functioning of marine ecosystems, Biostatistics, Populations' dynamics, Evolutionary genetics.

2016 : Bachelor's degree « Biology of Organisms and Populations », Lille 1 University – Villeneuve d'Ascq, France

Ecology, Biostatistics, Populations' genetics, Populations' dynamics, Fauna and flora of intertidal and subtidal zones.

2013 : Sciences Baccalaureate, Lycée Marguerite de Flandres – Gondécourt, France

OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS

November 2017: 19th annual seminar of the french National Strandings Network in Le Croisic peninsula, France (organized by Observatoire PELAGIS, UMS 3462)

Introduction on different scientific researches from data and samples collected by the network, introduction on projects about the marine mammals and fishing interaction.

July 2016: 20th international workshop on cetacean's necropsy at the veterinarian university in Liege, Belgium (supervised by Dr. Thierry Jauniaux)

Realization of necropsies on harbour porpoises, introduction of methods allowing extraction and fixation of cetaceans' inner ear.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

→ INTERNSHIPS

January 2018: 6 months experience at the CIMA Research Foundation within the group Pelagic Ecosystem (Italy, supervised by Dr. Aurélie Moulins)

Processing data from different campaigns in order to evaluate the risk of collision between whales and vessels in the Pelagos Sanctuary (within the Mediterranean Sea).

April 2017: 2 months experience at the CIMA Research Foundation within the group Pelagic Ecosystem (Italy, supervised by Dr. Aurélie Moulins)

Processing data from the 2016 campaign in the Mediterranean Sea, preliminary analysis of the distribution of the Cuvier's beaked whale, sea surveys to collect data for the 2017 campaign.

May 2016: 1 month experience at the « Coordination Mammalogique du Nord de la France » within the group Marine Mammals (supervised by M. Jacky Karpouzopoulos)

Organization of the french National Strandings Network, monitoring of populations of grey seals and harbor seals in the English Channel.

June 2015: 6 weeks experience at the LOG UMR CNRS 8187 (supervised by Dr. Lionel Denis)

Study of the primary production of the microphytobenthos in the intertidal area in the Authie Bay (North of France).

→ WORKING EXPERIENCES

Since 2015: 3 years of regular work at the swimming pool in Herlies as lifeguard.